ADJUSTING TO LIFE AFTER LOSS – 3 WEEK PROGRAM

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 10TH, 17TH, & 24TH | 4-5 P.M. | VIRTUAL

Coping with the loss of a loved one can be challenging, particularly when individual factors and unrealistic expectations intensify the grieving process. Additionally, support from others often diminishes over time. This three-week workshop addresses key aspects of grief through a different focus each week. Week one explores common myths and expectations surrounding grief. Week two examines factors that influence the grieving process, and week three focuses on building and maintaining personal support. Participants may attend all three sessions or select the topics most relevant to them. Presented by Jason Kieffer, LCPC.

NAVIGATING NEUROPATHY

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 10TH | 11-12 P.M. | VIRTUAL

Community Spotlight

The Cancer Support Center is proud to spotlight our community partner, the Center for Food Equity in Medicine. Founded by Dr. Ann W. Jackson—a dedicated supporter of CSC for more than 20 years, as well as a participant—the Center for Food Equity in Medicine is committed to raising awareness and addressing the nutritional needs of individuals facing a cancer diagnosis.

The Center for Food Equity in Medicine operates a complimentary nutrition station at the Cancer Support Center, helping ensure access to essential, nourishing foods. During the summer months, the organization also partners with larger nonprofits to distribute fresh food—including bread, eggs, and produce—on a biweekly basis.
